My name is Sean Ankers, and I'm originally from Fort William, now living in Inverness. I'm in Evanton on a nine-week placement with Kiltearn Free Church on Chapel Road, and have just finished the second year of a three-year degree at the Free Church College in Edinburgh. This placement is part of the training for becoming a minister in the Free Church. It involves speaking on the Bible at the Sunday services (11.00am and 6.00pm) and Wednesday Prayer Meeting (7.30pm), and also visiting folks in the congregation and village. My main reason for being here (in this beautiful part of the world!) is to tell people about Jesus, who died so that if anyone believes in him, they will have a life-saving, life-changing relationship with God. But I'm also here to help in any way I can in the village. I'll be here until the first week in August, so I hope I'll meet you at some point before then.
