MINISTER'S MESSAGE

Hello to everyone in Evanton. I am Angus MacRae, the minister at Dingwall Free Church for the past 14 years, and since June I have also been looking after the Evanton Free Church family. The previous caretaker minister, Rev Farquhar Renwick has been unwell suffering from severe migraine. We wish him a speedy recovery.

I have enjoyed reconnecting with folk in Evanton, where I have many good friends in both the Free Church and the Church of Scotland. The church is a family gathered around God our Father. We are a family who share genuine hope, help and support. Perhaps you sense a need for God's direction and love in your life? Perhaps you would like your children or grandchildren to learn about the Christian faith? God has not left us on our own to try to work things out. We have been given the Bible to reveal God and the Holy Spirit to make a relationship with God real and personal. Our aim is to share our Christian hope in every way we can, particularly through worship and by being a community who care for each other and our neighbours.

We would love to meet you at any of our regular Sunday services, our Sunday and Friday events for children, and at some special events planned during the festive season including a meal and all-age Family Service on 27th December. Please contact us if we can be of service to you and I promise you a great welcome at Kiltearn Free Church.
